ANASHIELD 2

Introducing the new standard for odor removal and a degreasing cleaner; Anashield 2 targets the heart of the odor providing a fresher scent throughout by attacking odor at its source rather than simply masking the odor. It's been proven on the hardest to remove odors such as, smoke, cadaver, cat urine, dog urine, rodent droppings, mildew and a variety of other odors. By targeting the source, this product has the ability to provide results never thought of or seen before with a day-to-day cleaning solution. Anashield 2 can be utilized for residential commercial and industrial applications and is an amazing degreasing cleaner. Oils, grease and dirt are no match.
